Terrific! Yes she's great. And thanks for looking after my PhD students as I don't really have time to do justice to them at the moment. ;)
Terri Apter and David Newbery send their best, btw. I told them I poached you!

Hi D'Maris,

Just a quick update. I had a long chat with Tehreem today. She seems incredibly bright and is doing something really interesting. I have given her a bunch of ideas and some references and asked her to come and chat with once she has mulled over the ideas.

Best wishes,
Aniket
